

USE THIS FORM ONLY WHEN YOUR BOARD IS MEETING IN EXECUTIVE SESSION (a meeting closed to the public). According to the Open Door Law, you can only meet in executive session for one or more of the reasons listed below. If you close a meeting to the public for any other reason, or discuss topics other than the ones listed below during an executive session, you could be in violation of the law.

By law, you must give the newspaper and the public notice of EACH executive session at least 48 hours in advance. (You cannot schedule executive sessions to occur at a certain time and place every week or every month, for instance; they can only occur when a specific reason from the list below arises.) The newspaper must receive notice of an executive session in writing, listing one or more of the following reasons for it; you also are required to post notice of the executive session on the door at which the meeting will be held, 48 hours in advance.
